BUREAU OF THE MINT,

Washington, D. C., 21st Oct, 1886.Mem.

Prof Dallas was appointed to a place in the Mint at Phil.
2 Apr. '77 at a per diem of
$1.75.

His pay was increased
May 15, '83 to $2.50.
(to women).

The highest pay is $300
to only one person — the Chief of the adjusters. Only one other woman beside Prof Dallas received as high as $2.50 — viz. the Chief Clerk.

Miss Dallas has received every consideration under the narrow limitations of the Service.

She occupies a position, made indeed for her, I believe, in the Coin. Cabinet. But I do not see how anything further can be done for her advantage in this branch of the public service.

I will gladly, however, confer with the Sup't the next time I see him.

[Abstract:] Relative to salary of Miss Dallas.

Bureau of the Mint,
Washington, D.C.,

Mem.

Miss Dallas was appointed to a place in the Mint at Phil. 2 Apr. '77 at a per diem of $1.75.

Her pay was increased May 15, '83 to $2.50.

The highest pay (to women) is $3.00 & to only one person – the chief of the adjusters. Only one other woman besides Miss Dallas resides as high as $2.50 – viz. the Chief Counter.

Miss Dallas has received every consideration under the narrow limitations of the service. She occupied a position, made indeed for her, I believe, in the coin-cabinet. But I do not see how anything farther can be done for her advantage in this branch of the public service. I will gladly however confer with the Supt. the next time I see him.
